

1. How do you access a Dictionary value?

Answer:

- Use the key name.
- Returns the corresponding value.

Example:

```
student["name"]
```

2. What is a Function?

Answer:

- A function is a reusable block of code.
 - It performs a specific task.
 - It reduces code repetition.
-

3. Why do we use Functions?

Answer:

- Reuse code.
 - Reduce code duplication.
 - Improve readability.
 - Easy to maintain.
-

4. How do you define a Function?

Answer:

- Use the `def` keyword.
- Give a function name.
- Write the code inside the function.

Example:

```
def greet():
    print("Hello")
```

5. What are Function arguments?

Answer:

- Values passed to a function.
- Used as input.
- Helps make functions reusable.