

1. What is a Tuple?

Answer:

- A tuple stores multiple values.
 - It is ordered.
 - It is immutable (cannot be changed).
 - It allows duplicate values.
-

2. Difference between List and Tuple?

Answer:

- List is mutable.
 - Tuple is immutable.
 - List uses `[]`.
 - Tuple uses `()`.
-

3. What is a Set?

Answer:

- A set stores unique values.
 - It is unordered.
 - It does not allow duplicates.
 - It is mutable.
-

4. Why do we use a Set?

Answer:

- To remove duplicate values.
 - To perform set operations.
 - To store unique elements.
-

5. What is a Dictionary?

Answer:

- Stores data as key-value pairs.
- Uses curly braces { }.
- Keys must be unique.
- Values can be duplicated.